Miss Myrtle Rose, a member of the "Peg o' My Heart" company, is a niece of Mrs. Annette Parmelee of Enosburg

A flock of about 100 redpolls were seen Friday in the southern part of Burlington by two members of the Arboreta Walking club. These Arctic birds are · irregular winter visitors, as their southern journeys depend upon the supply of food in the far north.

While at work cutting logs in Brook line, Charles Benson of Newfane nearly lost the sight of one eye. He was felling a tree when in driving the wedge with an axe a piece of steel flew from it, striking him so that the nerve was torn off the back side of the right eye. Use "TIZ" and never suffer with tender, He is hopeful that sight may be restored

By the will of the late Anna C. Park, filed in Bennington Saturday, her sum-mer cottage in Woodford is left to the Union church, to be used as a parsonage.

The silver goblet presented to Miss Park by the pupils of the San Francisco high school, in which she was the first woman teacher, is left to Edward J. Hall of Bennington, a nephew. The large col-lection of curios gathered by the testa-tor in the Marshall and Gilbert islands is left to Hall P. McCullough of New York, another nephew.

TO ADVERTISE VERMONT RESORT. Rutland County People Plan to Boom Lake Bomoseen

Rutland, March 24.—A meeting has been called at O'Brien's hotel, Hydeville, next Monday afternoon, March 30, at 2 o'clock, of all interested in Lake Bomoseen to consider the matter of advertising that resort this season in all of the newspapers of New York City. A movement has been inaugurated by the various railroads and Hudson River boat lines to advertise Lake Bomoseen extensively, and the transportation companies offer to bear the principal part of the expense. They insist, however, on cottage owners, keepers of boarding houses and hotels and others interested at last, not next week or next month, but in the lake paying something toward right now! "GETS-IT" goes after corns a
